EARLY DEVELOPMENT INSTRUMENT (EDI)

The EDI is a community snapshot of how systems are supporting OUSD Kindergarteners' health, development, and school readiness. The results inform place-based planning in children's home neighborhoods to hold systems accountable for the healthy development for all young children.

EDI DOMAINS IN DISTRICT 7

Between 2020 and 2023, children improved in all domain areas except for Language and Cognition (55%) and General Knowledge and Communication (69%). The highest gains was in Emotional Maturity (81%). Overall, less than half of all children in District 7 were fully supported on all domains in 2023 (41%), an increase over both 2017 (40%) and 2020 (39%).

2023 EDI DOMAINS BY RACE/ETHNICITY* IN DISTRICT 7

Percentages indicate how many students are fully supported by ECE systems. The “All Domains” graph shows approximately half of kindergarteners in District 1 have at least one developmental area in which they need more support.

Note, this chart shows groups with 20 or more students. To learn more about domain results across a range of demographic categories, visit the EDI Domain Results by Student Group, City District, and Zone dashboard.

METHODOLOGY

- Apportionment: To organize Zip Code data into Oakland Districts, we apportioned the data. Apportionment is used when the known total population of a specific geographic area (i.e. number of children ages 0-5 in a zip code) is applied to a different geographic area without a known total population (i.e. number of children ages 0-5 in each City of Oakland District). For example, District 7 has the landmasses of 95% of 94603 and 64% of 94621, among other zip codes, so we apportioned data based on the percentage of Zip Code landmass in each Oakland District.
- Race & Ethnicity: In order to protect confidentiality, OUSD does not report publicly on data when the total number of students in a demographic category is less than or equal to 10. Because of this reason, Middle Eastern / North African (MENA), Native American, American Indian, and Pacific Islander student data is not included in these profiles.

About Oakland Starting Smart and Strong

Oakland Starting Smart and Strong \(OSSS\) is a citywide collaborative that advances racial justice, develops and amplifies community driven solutions, and advocates for changes in policy and resources to create an early childhood ecosystem that effectively serves children 0-5, their families, caregivers, and educators. Our collective vision of success is that all children, families, and early educators flourish in Oakland.

Our work proves that restorative, healing, and racially just work can take place when systems center the priorities of the most impacted early educators and families.
